

We understand the above Docket proposes allowing multi-media ownership. We feel strongly that this should not be allowed and that the current laws prohibiting this type ownership remain intact. We believe this is critical to ensure the continued dissemination of non-biased information in the United States.